

MARKING 100 YEARS

Lillian (Benetine) Azar, shown with her son Charley, will turn 100 on June 20. She was born in 1910 in New York City. She was married to Charley Azar for six years until he had a fatal heart attack and left her with their two sons, Charley and Joseph. She never remarried. Lillian raised her two boys by herself and worked as a seamstress in Brooklyn. The boys worked at young ages to help make ends meet. Lillian loves to sing and has never driven a car. She now lives in Las Vegas and has two grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. A party is planned for June 19 in Las Vegas.
